

HOW DOES NPGD WORK?

NPGD equips at-risk dads with everything they need to be the best parents they can be. The program includes the following:

- Fatherhood Values & Skills
- Stress & Anger Management
- Effective Communication
- Co-Parenting Strategies
- Healthy Relationship Education
- Job Assessment & Employment Resources
- Family Budgeting
- Child Support Education
- Mentoring

The number and kinds of services a father receives depends on his needs. Some dads have child support concerns; some do not. Some are becoming new dads; others have been fathers for some time. Some are in a relationship with the mother of their child; others are going it alone. Each father will have an Individual Service Plan designed to give him the maximum benefit from the program.

"Helping Kids & Communities
One Dad at a Time"

501 (c)(3) Nonprofit | EIN 47-4457647

(417) 501-8867
gooddads.com
info@gooddads.com

NEW PATHWAYS

for GOOD DADS

WHEN WE CHOOSE OUR PATH, WE CHOOSE OUR DESTINATION

Good Dads is a United Way partner.

Anytime you choose a new road or path, it's helpful to have a guide. It's even better to have a companion on the journey.

HOW DO I SIGN UP FOR THE PROGRAM?

The best first step to enrolling in the program is to reach out to Good Dads. You can do that calling us at (417) 501-8867, scanning the QR code below, or heading to gooddads.com/enroll. You may also stop by one of our offices:

SPRINGFIELD

205 W. Walnut Street, Suite 10
Springfield, MO 65806

KANSAS CITY

11106 E Winner Road
Independence, MO 64052

COLUMBIA

1209 E Walnut Street
Columbia, MO 65201

CLASS LOCATIONS

Good Dads community chapters and partner programs host New Pathways classes across Missouri, including:

- Ava
- Branson
- Buffalo
- Cass County
- Cedar County
- Chillicothe
- Columbia
- Fulton
- Gainesville
- Hannibal
- Independence
- Jefferson City
- Joplin
- Kansas City
- Lebanon
- McDonald County
- Mountain Grove
- Mt. Vernon / Stotts City
- Nevada
- Rolla
- Springfield
- St. Joseph
- Texas County

When you choose a new path and invest in a new journey, NPGD also invests in you.

We want you to be the best dad you can be. Along the way we will recognize your progress in a number of different ways, including:

- Awards and recognition
- Gift cards
- Other tools good dads need

Ask yourself what is really important and then have the courage to build your life around the answer.

LEE JAMPOLSKY M.D.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

Any new path or adventure is bound to have some challenges along the way. NPGD has a number of ways to address concerns that might discourage a father's progress. Depending on location and the time of day, a meal is served before class. For those living in Greene County, some transportation assistance is available.

NEW PATHWAYS FOR GOOD DADS (NPGD)

has it all — it is both a guide for responsible fatherhood and a network of companions to help you reach your goals for being a good dad.